

- In the Paint - Boys & Girls Basketball – Coverage Six Schools – Six Teams - This special publication highlights boys and girls basketball programs, featuring team coverage, player profiles, season previews, and the athletes and coaches who make local basketball exciting. Revenue - $40k
- Under the Lights — High School Football - Coverage Eight schools – Sixteen Teams - The Goshen News' high school football preview magazine. Featuring area teams, player spotlights, season outlooks, and the traditions that bring communities together, this publication celebrates the athletes, coaches, and fans from this markets area high schools. Revenue - $29k
- Around the Bases — Baseball & Softball - Coverage Seven Schools – Fourteen Teams - This magazine celebrates boys high school baseball and girls high school softball across the market. We provide previews of local teams, spotlights standout players, and showcases the dedication and teamwork behind every inning. Revenue $30k

Advertising opportunity: These publications offer local businesses a valuable opportunity to connect with student-athletes, parents, coaches, fans, and community supporters. Sponsorships and advertising demonstrate local businesses commitment to local schools while building visibility for their business.